HB 3902

February 26, 2006

SUMMARY OF BILL: Makes it an unfair or deceptive act or practice under the Tennessee Consumer Protection Act of 1977 to knowingly solicit by means of advertisements a product to persons who are not legally able to purchase it. A violation is punishable as a Class B misdemeanor, through the levying of civil penalties and through private rights of action.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Increase State Revenues – Not Significant

Increase State Expenditures – Not Significant

Increase Local Govt. Revenues – Not Significant

Increase Local Govt. Expenditures – Not Significant

Assumptions:

- A not significant increase in state revenues from the collection of civil penalties.
- A not significant increase in state expenditures to implement and monitor the provisions of this bill.
- There will not be a sufficient number of prosecutions for local governments to experience any significant increase in revenues or expenditures.
- Some increase in cases in the court system, through private rights of action, which will result in additional state and local government expenditures for processing cases and additional state and local government revenues from fees, taxes and costs collected. However, such increases will not be significant.
